Please write a BIO to match the examples below.

Karin Berggren

My name is Karin Berggren and I graduated in 2008 at the veterinary school in Uppsala, Sweden. During the studies I worked at a small animal clinic but also with large animals. I started to work at the Referral Animal Hospital Strömsholm in February 2008. In June that year I attended the Swedish programme for becoming a small animal specialist. I'm also a registered candidate for the Swedish Eye Panel. I'm a first year resident, my supervisors are Nils Wallin Håkanson and Maria Källberg.

Mr. Ben Blacklock

I graduated from the University of Bristol in 2009. After two years in mixed general practice I undertook a one year small animal internship at the Animal Health Trust in the UK. After a brief return to first opinion practice, I started my residency in November 2012 at the Animal Health Trust. Outside of work I love photography and sport (football, squash, skiing and walking in the English Lake District).

Mrs. Carolin Chiwitt

My name is Carolin Chiwitt and I graduated from the University of Gießen (Germany) in 2008. After graduation I prepared a doctoral thesis about the regeneration of retinal ganglion cells at the University of Münster (Germany). Afterwards I undertook a general internship in a small animal referral clinic in Germany. In 2012 I moved to UK and completed an ophthalmological internship at the Animal Health Trust, Newmarket. My residency at Willows Referral Service started in 2013 under the supervision of Heidi Featherstone and Christine Heinrich.

Mrs. Charlotte Dawson

My name is Charlotte and I am a first year resident at the Royal Veterinary College London. I graduated in 2009 here at the RVC. After graduation I worked in a general small animal practice in Guildford in Surrey. I stayed here for one year before moving onto complete a rotating internship at NKR Veterinary Specialists, which included ophthalmology, general surgery, internal medicine and emergency work. After this I went onto undertake a second rotating internship at the RVC. I am a very sociable person who enjoys spending time with my friends and family. I love to travel and enjoy activities like diving and especially skiing in winter.

Nina Peche

My name is Nina Peche. I graduated from Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich in April 2011. Afterwards I worked as scientific assistant at the clinic for small animal surgery and reproduction in Munich. In 2012 I started to work as assistant at the small animal clinic Dr. S. Medl in Babenhausen/ Schwaben. In February 2013 I have successfully defended my doctoral thesis at the university of Munich. Since September 2013 I am working at the small animal clinic of the Freie Universität Berlin, where my residency training program started in March 2014 under supervision of Corinna Eule. I live together with my two cats and enjoy spending time with my friends, my family and my icelandic horse.
