

Ophthalmologist - Certificate holder, board eligible or diplomat – Sydney based

About the position

Tired of grey skies and long winters? Why not take your Ophthalmology skills somewhere extraordinary. Come and work in the southern hemisphere in beautiful Sydney, Australia.

We are seeking a diplomat, Certificate holder or board eligible Veterinary Ophthalmologist to join us for a full or part position. This position will appeal to a referral Ophthalmologist looking for an adventure.

About you

We are looking for a passionate and enthusiastic Ophthalmologist who is:

- An ECVO/ACVO/ANZCVS diplomat OR residency trained/board eligible OR holds an advanced practitioner certificate in Veterinary Ophthalmology
- Have a Veterinary degree registrable in NSW, Australia
- Up for an adventure

About us

At Vet Vision we are dedicated to providing compassionate, cutting-edge specialist ophthalmic care to a wide range of species within multi-disciplinary specialist hospitals based across NSW.

What we offer

The team at Vet Vision pride ourselves on maintaining a strong and inclusive culture with an excellent work life balance and dedication towards wellbeing.

We support you with;

- An excellent salary package (commensurate with experience)
- A supportive, friendly and enjoyable work environment in one of the worlds most livable cities
- An excellent work life balance with a roster that can be flexible, with no weekends, after hours or public holidays.
- Relocation assistance
- Coverage of Veterinary registration fees
